

Map of Points of Interest

The buildings and watchtowers of Sendai Castle no longer exist, but you can see remains including stone walls, moats, and earthen walls.

1 Site of Otemon Gate and Waki-yagura Watchtower (reconstruction)

Otemon Gate before It Was Burned Down

2 Otemon Gate North Earthen Wall (extant)

3 Site of Nakanomon Gate

4 Main Compound North Stone Wall

5 Main Compound Site of Tsumenomon Gate

6 Main Compound Northwest Stone Wall

7 Site of Torinomon Gate

16 Statue of Date Masamune on Horseback

17 Site of Ohiroma

15 Moat (Goshikinuma Pond) and Next to It the Sign Recognizing the Birthplace of Figure Skating in Japan

13 Sendai City Museum

14 Bust of DATE Masamune

11 Moat (Naganuma Pond) and Bank

9 Site of Shimizumon Gate

12 Stone Wall Along the River

10 The Winding Road to the Castle

8 Site of Tatsumimon Gate

Sendai Castle 仙台城見聞館 Guidance Facility

Main Compound's North Stone Wall
The Remains of the Ohiroma Large Hall in the Main Compound

Aerial photograph of Sendai Castle (from the east)

---- Road to castle via Otemon Gate and Nakanomon Gate (Main Compound → Otemon Gate) 15min.
---- Road to castle via Tatsumimon Gate and Shimizumon Gate (Main Compound → Museum) 20min.